

C. CHAPLIN'S WIFE

TO WAIT A YEAR

She Won't Sue for Divorce, Hoping the Custard Pie
Comedian Will Come Back

(INTERNATIONAL NEWS SERVICE)
LOS ANGELES, Cal., March 24.—Miss Harris Chaplin has decided to wait one year for her celebrated husband, Charlie Chaplin to return to her and their former love.

This was her statement today on the eve of her departure for Grand Canyon, the first stop of a journey that will take her to England as the guest of Lady Stuart McKenzie, now sojourning Colorado. It is Mrs. Chaplin's belief, she said today, that in a year's time Charlie will find his old love for her rekindled and that a reconciliation will be the happy result. In that connection she said:

"I won't begin suit against Charlie and Charlie, I understand says he won't begin suit against me. I still love Charlie and I feel his conscience is hurting him for the things he has done to me. I shall wait a year to prove to him the kind I am. I have not been going out with anybody and I am going to be even more of a recluse than I have been in the past. My only companion has been my mother and I have stayed with her during our domestic controversy. Perhaps within a year's time Charlie will realize his mistake and come back to me."

ELKS HOLD INITIATION

Tonight's meeting of the Elks will see all arrangements perfected for another big time Saturday evening next when the honors of membership will be conferred upon a class of twenty candidates. Lively interest is being shown by the members of East Chicago Lodge No. 531 in securing new members as it becomes apparently essential to increase the membership with a view of building the new Elks Temple which will not only be a credit to the Elks themselves but likewise the city of East Chicago at large. The committee on arrangements for the festivities Saturday evening anticipate an other capacity crowd and with this object in view nothing is being left undone to insure for the candidates and the members attending, a most enjoyable time. Immediately following the initiation work, lunch will be served and music and games indulged in.

CANTOR SHADES OPASIK

Harry Cantor of 2502 Fir street, Indiana Harbor, won a shade over S. Opasik his landlord, in the East Chicago city court yesterday when the court placed Opasik under a peace bond. The court proceedings yesterday were the third round of a battle which has been waging between the two since Opasik became owner of the property almost a year ago.

The first round in court resulted in a victory for Cantor who was allowed by the court to retain possession without an increase in rent which Opasik had demanded. Opasik was then accused by Cantor of breaking the windows in the house in order to force Cantor to vacate. The second round resulted in a draw because of insufficient evidence. Yesterday the court put Opasik under peace bonds to insure Cantor's windows from damage.

Opasik is unable to get Cantor out of his flat because he does not know the date when Cantor first took possession.

A NEW GREEN HOUSE

Work has been started on assembling the new green house which is being erected in Washington Park in East Chicago and which is intended to furnish early flowers and shrubs for the city parks. The building was ordered early in the year and March 1st was set as the date for construction to begin but delays in shipping made the arrival of the sections about three weeks late, too late to do much good this spring. Work, however, is being pushed and if the heater boiler arrives on schedule time the plant may be of some use for the late spring flowers.

KENTUCKY STILL ARE CAPTURED

(INTERNATIONAL NEWS SERVICE)
LEXINGTON, Ky., March 25.—Five moonshine stills with a total capacity of 250 gallons were destroyed and 1,000 gallons of beer captured by federal prohibition officers in two raids made in the Kentucky mountains this week.
Warning shots said to have been fired by mountaineers prevented the capture of three more stills.

EASTER MILLINERY

Revealing All the Charming New Modes Fashion Has Decried for the New Season

As if in joyous anticipation of the coming Spring, "The Hat and Art Shop" has taken on a festive air in their presentation of all that's new and lovely from millinery fashion centers.

WITH each creation seemingly more charming than the other, 't would be difficult to decide which of the many new style features is the most bewitching. That there is to be a tendency to the "Egyptian Period," is evidenced in the captivating new shapes of Egyptian trend—the wondrously draped Egyptian-like Turbans—the alluringly veiled hats that take one's thoughts to the days of Cleopatra.

Wondrously soft, pliable fabrics will rival lovely straws, with a preference shown for the softly flattering Transparent Hats of hair braid.

Sports Hats have borrowed their colorings from the rainbow tints—tempting one's fancy still further with their snappy shapes and novel trimming touches—with here a motif of bright-hued fruit, there a clever touch of embroidery—perhaps done in wool.

"Off-the-face" models are seemingly much in favor, yet shapes are so varied that the desire in every woman's heart for a hat that emphasizes her very own individuality can be easily gratified.

Untrimmed Shapes

For the woman who would plan her own hat, we're showing newest shapes and trimmings, and our own Artist Designers will evolve for her a creation that will be distinctive and individual.

The Veil

Fashion whispers a little secret direct from the lips of Paris Modistes—one must be veiled—and when the veil is of the bordered type, the border is worn at the top, giving a most "unusual" touch—but try it and see.
